Good morning, everyone.

- On Sunday (15 November), we will have Holy Communion (1662 – BCP) at 8 a.m. followed by Parish Eucharist at 11 a.m. † We would appreciate 5 minutes of quiet reflection at 10:55 a.m. The readings are from 1 Thessalonians, Chapter 5: verses 1 to 11, and Matthew Chapter 25: verses 14 to 30. † There is no service at the Chapel. Their members are very welcome at St Mary's. †
- Our 3rd Sunday service will recognise Safeguarding Sunday. Please come at 10:30 a.m. for refreshments and to join many UK churches promoting good safeguarding practice. Pat and Kathryn, our Safeguarding Officers, will explore the theme of 'Love Protects' with this year's focus on 1 Corinthians Chapter 13.

- They will also explain the importance of an anonymous survey (please click this link) http://ineqe.com/churchofengland/Chelmsford which you are invited to complete. After the service, Pat and Kathryn will have a laptop available to help you complete the survey then, if that's easier for you. We hope that by the end, you will know more about how Safeguarding is carried out in our church and why it matters to the whole church community.

- On Monday, 16 November, Celtic Morning Prayer is in St Andrew's at 9 a.m.
- Next Sunday, 22nd November, there's a United Parish Eucharist at 11 a.m. at St Mary's.

Looking ahead, on 5 December at St John's there's a Crib Festival and Christmas Market between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

On 15 December there's Beer and Carols at the Rodney at 8 p.m.

On 18 December, Sylvie Bartlett's funeral service and on 19 December, Messy Nativity at 4 p.m.

Best Regards, Andrew
